Dedication

To a person whom we admire as an understanding and sympathetic friend . . . a wise guide whose ever-ready wit and never-failing interest in our problems have endeared her to the students of Rainelle High School . . . a talented teacher who has given freely of her time and energy to make our school life interesting and worthwhile . . . the class of 1954 gratefully dedicates the RANGER to Mrs. M. M. Townley.

Foreword

Rainelle High School . . . my school . . . homeroom period . . . "Your attention please" . . . a bell and then a rush at the change of classes . . . locker doors slamming shut . . . marshals yelling, "Single file" . . . cutting halls . . . trudging to the barracks . . . the long, long hour before lunch--and then, beans! . . . $2x-4y-3z$. . . six weeks and semester exams . . . "Latin is a language dead" . . . home work . . . the musical tone of the 4:00 bell . . . Seniors anxiously awaiting the arrival of class rings . . . our friends: Mr. Coffman and the teachers . . . the thrill of football season . . . watching the band perform . . . tears when the Alma Mater is sung . . . Christmas holidays . . . report cards that come so regularly . . . cheering our basketball team . . . school spirit . . . our pride and joy--the RANGER . . . those wonderful assemblies . . . dignified Seniors and their privileges . . . and finally, graduation . . . "And when we're far asunder, our hearts will turn to thee . . ."

The RANGER has tried to record on its pages many of these . . . experiences that too soon will become memories . . . If it has preserved in tangible form those experiences that have made Rainelle High School your school . . . and can through the years enable you to "Live again those former days, so joyous and care-free," . . . it will have served the purpose for which the class of 1954 sends it out with high hope.

SENIOR CLASS

Senior Class Officers

Derald Nolen President
Melvin Sanford Vice-President
June Jones Secretary
Lawrence Gilkeson Treasurer

T. B. ADKINS

"T.B."--a real swell guy... blue eyes, brown hair and 180 pounds of wit and fun... comes autumn he's busy playing football, and he's good too... "I got plenty of nothing" seems to be "T.B.'s" theme song but he is always happy just loafing, hunting, or driving his blue Chrysler. "T.B." surely is missed at R.H.S.

BARBARA BENNETT

Blonde--blue-eyed, nice, sweet, and cute... that's Barbara. Spends part of her spare time working at G.C.M.'s, but most of it goes to a certain R.H.S. graduate. Would like to be a housewife and a career girl. After she departs from R. H. S., we know that she'll do well in whatever she chooses.

BETTY BOGGS

Here's Betty who swoons over number 92 on the football team... but loves the whole crowd and the whole crowd loves her... She's pleasant, she's fun, and she's got brains. She manages to keep her ambition a secret... but maybe she'll be a secretary... She'll be good, too... R.H.S.'s sure-to-succeed career girl.

Seniors

VIVIAN ALVIS

She came to R.H.S. from Fleming High, Va., in '52. One of the friendliest girls in the class and as attractive as she is friendly... a lovely combination of black hair and brown eyes. She wants to study business. Her motto - "Fun comes first!" She likes banana splits, apples, and boys. She'll get along fine... our "Viv."

RANDOLPH BOTTOMLY

A quiet guy of a sort. . . Has a certain impression of teachers, homework, and school; and what's more, he doesn't keep it a secret! Always found at the Youth Center. Loves anything good to eat. Favorite colors: maroon and gold. . . Likes football, basketball, or should I say any sport? He's a wonderful all-around guy.

GEORGE BROOKS

Yes, that's "Mutt." Carefree and smiling . . . never unhappy . . . manages to keep one eye on that diploma. Likes: girls, sports, and loves to eat. Enjoys playing basketball and never misses Marilyn Monroe at the movies. Wants to be one of Uncle Sam's men. Whatever he does, "Mutt" will always be the same swell guy.

Seniors

WAYNE BOTTOMLY

There's never a dull moment when Wayne's around . . . he's witty and loads of fun. He's a clever student. We don't know how he packs so much work and play into twenty-four hours. The band couldn't do without him and his drum. He's been one of the favorites around school and everyone wishes him good luck.

KAREN CARR

Dark eyes and black hair are a nice combination . . . especially if their owner is a vivacious lass named Karen. She's friendly, nice, and always ready for fun. Our hard-working editor of the "Range" who has a sunny disposition. She plans to go to a beautician school next year if a certain M. P. doesn't come after her!

SHELBY CARR

Beauty and brains . . . a nice combination. Combine them with sweetness and friendliness, and you've the tops . . . these spell Shelby. She's a tall, slim gal with a pleasant smile and always has that dimple in her cheek! Watch her fingers fly in typing and you're sure she'll be an office gal. She will make some firm the excellent secretary she plans to be.

BILL CARTER

Bill's one of our up-and-coming business men. . . He's already getting plenty of experience at an Esso Station. . . Chief interests: a certain little blonde named "Valera" from the Senior class and any kind of FOOD--enjoys tinkering with motors. . . The life of the Shop. . . Friendly, always happy, Bill is a grand fellow!

Seniors

SHIRLEY CARR

She hates getting up in the morning (maybe it's because she doesn't have hot dogs and frozen custard for breakfast). She's a business girl, too. If it's dancing, skating, or swimming she's right there. She smiles at all students and frowns at all teachers--except Mr. Holcomb. Thinks Robert Wagner is tops. Here's luck to Shirley.

FRANK CORRON

Blue eyes and blonde hair . . . one of the cutest seniors . . . everyone's favorite. . . Frank likes sports and he's all for basketball. Hobby: loafing . . . likes girls . . . period. His ambition is to be seven feet tall! Has his eye on that diploma. Friendly, always smiling, Frank is a grand fellow.

DOUGLAS CRAWFORD

Yes, girls, tall--dark--and handsome . . . but, as we know, he's already taken. He's tops in chemistry, band, geometry, or should I say anything he undertakes. Wants to go to college, but hasn't said where. He's a lady killer who seems to be concentrating on one special (and who wonders why?). Will always be a nice guy.

VALERA DOTSON

Little Valera . . . she's tiny, blonde-haired, blue-eyed . . . sweet and nice . . . that's Valera. Two loves has she--an extra special guy named Bill and shorthand. She's a football fan. . . Prefers cooking and washing dishes to readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic. Her sweetness and friendliness have endeared her to students and teachers alike.

Seniors

BOBBY CROOKSHANKS

Bob's all right. . . He hates homework . . . never has anything to do at study period . . . but he has his eye on that diploma. . . Has a number of interests: fishing, hunting, looking at pretty girls, and glancing at lessons. Thinks Marilyn Monroe is tops. He's care-free and happy. . . He'll be a friend of Uncle Sam when he's out of school.

LOU VONNE DURHAM

Sugar and spice--everything nice . . . that's our Lou Vonne . . . witty and full of fun . . . has a pleasant smile . . . our Queen--the loveliest one of all . . . hates spiders . . . a regular customer at the post office for an all-important letter from a certain sailor . . . a fine gal. Best of luck to you . . . Lou Vonne.

GAIL EGNOR

She never breaks rules, and she's quiet and industrious. Her favorite pastime is going to the movies. Has a happy outlook on life. A loyal supporter of our football team. On Gail's list of likes: Chicken and Tony Curtis. A nice gal who keeps her ambition a secret. We wish you luck, Gail.

VIRGINIA FLESHMAN

Sharp . . . "Ginny" is, and sweet . . . hates exams, but shouldn't . . . always ranks in the top A's. She's versatile and hard-working . . . loves to loaf, but never can find time. She's an eye-ful in that uniform and one of our leading majorettes. No wonder she was voted our most likely to succeed! Wants to earn a Duke diploma, and shouldn't she?

Seniors

CURTIS FLESHMAN

"Curt" is one of those fellows on whom we can always depend. He's quiet and works steadily. Spends his spare time hunting and fishing. . . Strictly the outdoor type. Expects to join the Navy and ride the high seas when he has that coveted diploma at last in his possession.

MARTHA FORREN

She doesn't like surprise tests, but she does like: lots of people, a special guy, and Jeff Chandler movies. She's witty, fun-loving and friendly. Dislikes sarcasm. . . prefers hamburgers, loafing, and blue. Supplements her school activities by working at the theater. Martha likes everyone, and so all of us like her.

LOWELL FRASHURE

He's the quiet type, or is he? Grey eyes... almost auburn hair... a friendly smile... He's nice, he's always in the right place at the right time. Good in shop... should be tops in his chosen occupation. Likes to watch sports, football, basketball, and most of all--baseball. Wants to be a sailor for Uncle Sam.

VILA GILBERT

If you want a sweet temper, a good pal, and an all-around person, you have it in Vila... apparently someone has already made that important discovery. She likes blue and white... thinks Dale Robertson is tops. School has been both work and play for her, and those in school have enjoyed knowing her.

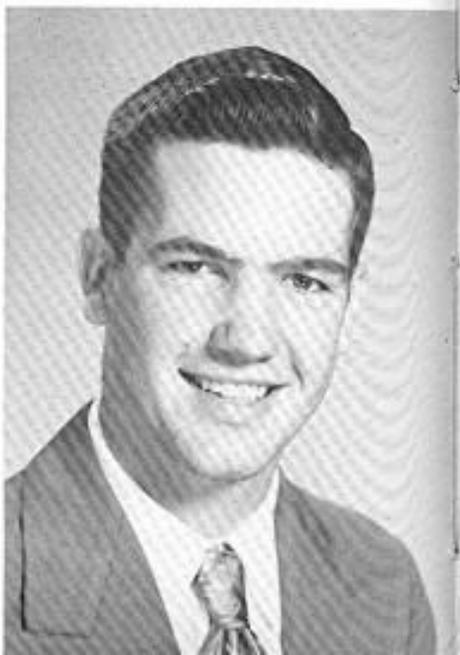

Seniors

THOMAS GENT

He left us for M.H.S. but now he's back. A crew cut and a friendly smile... carefree and full of wit... dresses up and looks quite handsome... Tommy Dorsey the second. A business man of parts but never likes for the A. & P. customers to delay their shopping hours. Tommy's been one of the favorites around school, and everyone wishes him luck.

LAWRENCE GILKESON

Tall, brown-eyed, dark-haired... Girls! He's a dreamboat!... everybody's friend... always found at off times on 9th Street at a certain white house... Hates to go to bed early, but when he's asleep, he has the best dreams. He's a good member of R.H.S. ... has done a grand job of being a good student.

SUE HARMON

Black hair, blue eyes, five-foot-six. . . Sue is attractive and interesting. . . She likes French fries and "Downhearted" but she likes M.B.H.S. much more. Has never liked oral reports, but has complied when necessity demanded. . . You can find her at all the ball games, the good movies, or the swimming pool . . . will always be a lovely person.

JAMES HOBBS

He's really quite a guy . . . short, blue eyes, and brown hair. That's not all. . . He's friendly and quiet--always ready to do his share. Is never adverse to good fun. . . quite a wit . . . everyone likes him. He's everybody's friend, and one of the best. James is a real pal.

Seniors

WALTER HEARN

Got no money, got no time, got no worries; just got to play his saxophone! Has no love for teachers or homework, but manages to have his eye on that diploma. Likes: to eat, or tease, or just quarrel. Loves: sweets, but won't tell whether it's dessert or girls . . . but then, everything about Bud is tops.

PHYLLIS HOGSETT

Has a lovely smile, a pretty face, and a nice voice . . . she's sweet and she's nice to know. Goes for tall, dark, handsome boys--especially Doug! Plays first trumpet in the band and does a fine job. Phyllis's high standards and her determination to live up to them are qualities that help make her the wonderful person she is.

JANET JOHNSON

Here's one of our leading majorettes . . . and can she step! Enjoys it more than anything, too, except riding in a '52 black Cadillac, on the front seat beside a special driver. Janet's always in a good humor, never lonesome, and quite dependable. There's one thing she hates . . . exams.

JUNE JONES

A cute lass with a yen for good grades and a good time both . . . has a special love for Marshall. She's a skating and movie fan too . . . likes people, so has many friends. Friendly and happy, little wonder everyone loves June. Wants to be a secretary if she doesn't ride away in that tan Frazier that's always parked in front of her house.

Seniors

JEAN JOHNSON

The prettiest eyes in school, plus the longest eyelashes ever. A peppy cheerleader . . . ambitious student whose dream is to be a pharmacist . . . pleasant smile . . . famous soda jerk . . . a favorite with the boys, but no steady beau . . . all these and many more add up to a wonderful all-around girl.

LOUELLA KEAVENY

Quiet--but not shy at all. Quite small, seems to do all right at R.H.S. She came to us in September of '53. She wants nothing out of life but to be happy. A pleasing smile, a happy disposition and the love of her fellow students. With a twinkle in her eyes and a smile for everyone, "Lou's" a real pal.

VERLA LIVELY

She's sweet, she's nice, she's cute. One of the best liked girls in class. Always happy, always friendly, and can she sing . . . cute as a bug's ear and happy go lucky, fun to have around. You'll find her where there's chicken, a crowd, or her one and only. She'll get along fine, our own Verla.

EMMA McINTIRE

Short, cute, and sweet . . . that's "Shorty." When this gal's around you're sure to smile. She'll cheer you up, she's everybody's friend . . . hates tempers, teasing, and loves sodas. One of these days she wants to change a student's desk for a teacher's . . . lucky kids! She's conscientious, ambitious, and a hard worker.

Seniors

MARLENE McCALL

Lovely blue eyes and brown hair . . . tiny, but "valuable things come in small packages" . . . delightful to know . . . If it's skating it's all right for pleasure, if it's "Stranger in Paradise," it's all right for music . . . always in a good humor, quite dependable . . . a girl who can't be beat.

GEORGE McINTIRE

Yes, it's black hair, blue eyes, and what muscles! Plus those a wonderful personality, friendly disposition. Loves a special little junior, football, and any kind of food and loafing. Doesn't have a favorite class, a chosen ambition. He's just George, a sport loving and fun loving fellow, rolled into one.

DERALD NOLEN

Yes, this is Derald. Girls, he's good looking, plus having blue eyes, blonde hair, he has the brains to match . . . has all the answers in chemistry and geometry . . . keeps busy with many school activities and does each one well. Takes time out for reading, movies, swimming. He's a wonderful all-around person. He's bound to be a wonderful success.

SHELBY OSBORNE

Yes, she's real and what's more . . . she's ours. . . The pride and joy of the senior class, one of the sweetest, most lovable girls in class. Is she witty, friendly, nice? Meet her once and then you'll know. What a gal! There's never a dull moment when "Shel's" around. She wants to be a nurse . . . plus these. . . She's everybody's friend and vice-versa. That's our "Shel."

LEWIS POWERS

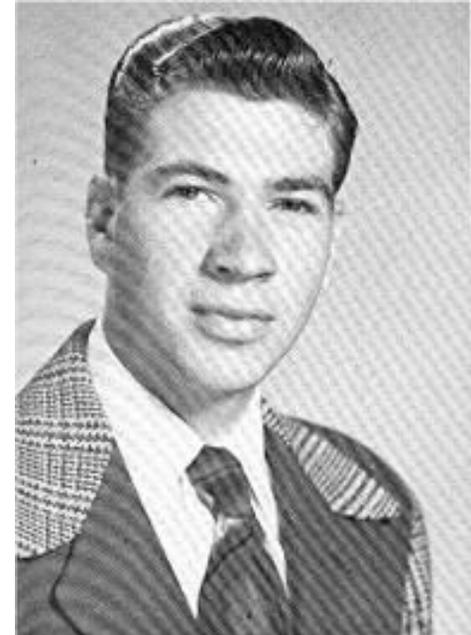

He may speak only when spoken to . . . but this lad gets plenty of listening that way (wise fellow!). . . Has a great start at the A. & P. . . Secret ambition: to become manager. (Mr. Miller--beware!) Says he hates homework, but never comes to class without it. A member of the Glee Club . . . likes public speaking better than any other class.

Seniors

VIRGINIA REXRODE

The softest voiced senior of them all! Enjoys living . . . never unhappy . . . a good student--quiet, but not shy. For homework she has a very definite feeling, but never comes to class without it. A lovely disposition . . . a perfect combination: a real pal and a true friend.

JOHN RICKMAN

Here's a lad with more than his share of good qualities . . . friendly, studious, popular. . . He doesn't like (men) teachers but they don't know it. But he's our John and that's enough said. . . He's carefree and congenial. He has a bad impression of homework. . . Manages to work, study, and play. He'll do all right, and why shouldn't he?

MELVIN SANFORD

He's the wittiest of them all . . . this is "Hattie." Life has been more pleasant because he's been sticking around. Coach couldn't do without him and neither could R.H.S. Likes to play football and eat. (We have an idea which he likes the better.) College man . . . business man, or what, "Hattie's" ambition and personality are a combination that can't be beat.

Seniors

MESCAL RICKMAN

Quiet, a whiz in school, voted the most bashful girl, which helps more than it harms. Quite an actress. Likes R.H.S. and Chemistry. Has a definite opinion of homework but never says what it is. Loves basketball, football, and almost any sport. According to all these qualifications she is quite a gal.

ALVENA SEVY

She wants nothing out of life but to be happy . . . and she has the combination for it: a pleasing smile, a happy disposition, and the love of her fellow students. Ornaments a certain finger with a solitaire . . . thinks June is a lovely month. . . She's always friendly, always jolly, always ready to help . . . a grand girl.

KYLE SHUMAKER

Casanova??? No, just loves all the girls and the girls love him . . . why? . . . Because he's cute . . . has grey eyes and brown hair. Maybe so, but he's got more: a grand sense of humor, friendliness, and he's popular. Hates exams and school . . . after he earns that H.S. diploma, he wants to join Uncle Sam. Here's luck to you, Kyle. . .

MILDRED SKIDMORE

Mildred is one of the nicest seniors. . . Her brown eyes always have a twinkle and there's never less than one dimple in her cheek. She'd simply die if she couldn't talk all the time . . . but her friends love it . . . she loves them, too, plus chocolate pie and football games. . . We know she will be happy and make those around her equally so.

Seniors

VIRGINIA SIMMS

Tall, blonde, and slender, plus those she's cute, nice, sweet, and friendly. Makes good grades and has a great many friends. She's one of the office girls, a whiz in commercial studies, so no doubt she'll make a good secretary. She likes everyone and everyone likes her, so why shouldn't she go places?

JOAN SMITH

Blonde hair, blue eyes . . . an infectious giggle and looks like fun. Likes movies, public speaking and acquires a very respectable report card every six weeks. She also thinks June is a lovely month and prefers keeping house to a career. She'll be all right wherever she is.

BARBARA TAYLOR

A sweet smile, an alert mind, these have "Barb." . . . She's loyal, she's sentimental, she's nice to know. Prefers making a type-writer fly to washing dishes . . . a business girl in the making . . . listens to the radio and reads. She never misses Farley Granger. Thinks R.H.S. is all right. "Barb's" sure to succeed in whatever she undertakes.

ALVA UTTERBACK

She's cute, she's sweet, she's nice to know . . . brown hair, blue eyes and made good grades. . . Alva has all these, plus the love of many friends. Took time out for reading, football, swimming and never refused to do anything for R.H.S. Alva exchanged the 3 "r's" for the role of Mrs. Charles Lyons.

Seniors

MARIE TIGNOR

Blonde hair and brown eyes . . . a quiet gal, but not shy at all. Ambition a secret. . . Favorite color: blue, food: chicken, school: R.H.S., entertainment: movies or any kind of sports, hobby: reading. Doesn't like homework or surprise government tests. Marie's a splendid gal and we're glad she decided to graduate from R.H.S.

VONORA YOUNG

Imagine a girl whose secret ambition . . . is to be a H.W. She has the looks, the ring, and can she cook! A sense of humor that's hard to beat . . . witty, fun to be around. Hates tempers . . . loves banana splits and a certain guy in the army. Doesn't like homework or surprise tests. One of the friendliest folks around.

R. C. WAUGH

Friendly, nice, and likes everyone so vice-versa. Loves: girls, money, movies, and Marilyn Monroe. Likes any kind of food, loafing, and dislikes surprise tests, government, and snobby people, also noseys ones. All these good qualities make up one of the sweetest guys of the senior class.

BETTY CAROL WOMACK

Our snappy head majorette . . . neat as a pin . . . talent . . . She's loaded with it . . . has a lovely voice, top piano and clarinet player, honor roll student to name a few . . . wears formals like a model and dances like a dream . . . They say the ladder of success is hard to climb but Bet has on her climbing shoes . . . "Bet" is surely destined for success.

Seniors

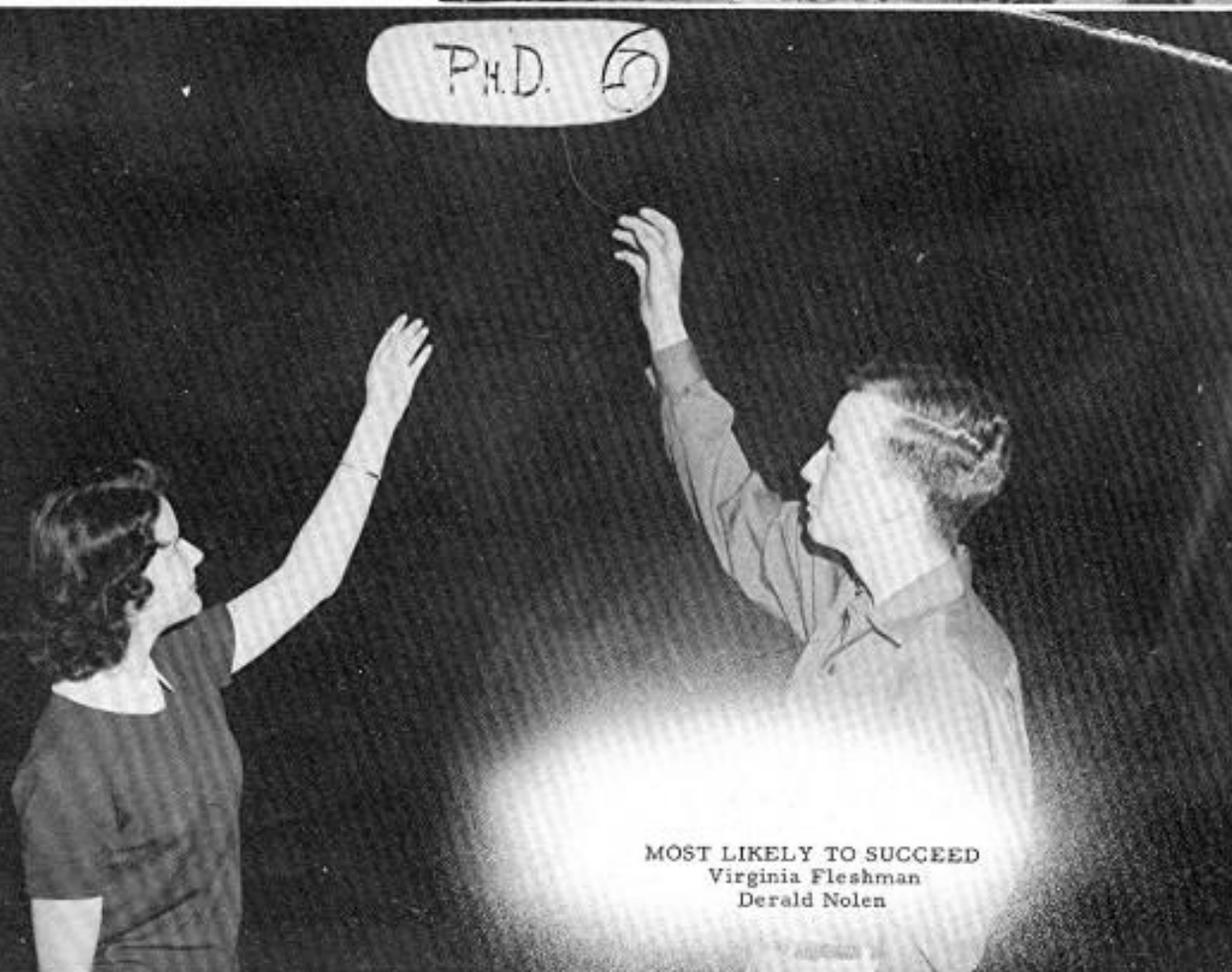

DWAYNE WOOLLARD

Never a worry, never a care has Dwayne . . . sometimes known as Lucius Tarquinius Priscus Woollard! Chief interests: football, a certain gal from the Lilly Addition, and any kind of food. Dwayne's combination of good looks and a wonderful personality makes him one of the most popular seniors around.

ATHLETICS

The 1953 Rangers Varsity Squad

Through sunshine and shadow, through victories and reverses, our faithful athletic directors, Head Coach Brown and Assistant Coach Perkins, led us during the 1953-54 season. Always stressing true sportsmanship in every phase of athletics, they taught us the important lesson: "It matters not so much whether you won or lost but how you played the game."

Chosen to lead the Ranger squad were Co-Captains Melvin Sanford and Lawrence Gilkeson.

Tension is mounting as the Coaches discuss a play that might be used to aid us in winning this game.

Scrambling for yardage is George McIntire (55) before he is tackled by the Meadow Bridge Wildcats.

Joe Yearego
End

Harold Cochran is shown trying desperately to recover a Meadow Bridge fumble.

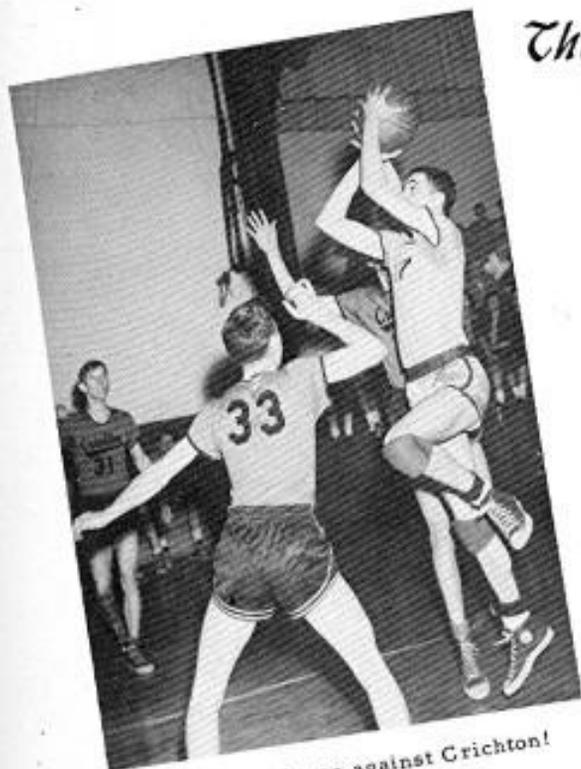

Wallace (68) moves forward behind Cavendish (90) and Sanford (77) as a Meadow Bridge Wildcat moves in.

First Row: Kenneth Smith, Lawrence Gilkeson, Harold Cochran, Joe Yearego, Tommy Cavendish, Kieffer Campbell, Second Row: Coach Jim Brown, Elbert Pitzzenbarger, Jimmy Wilt, Calvin Simmons, Charles Underwood, Lewis Wallace, Mgr.

 Second Row: Coach J. A. Maynard, Bucky Forbes, Ralph Judy, James Bottomly, Gordon Alls.

Junior Varsity

Tommy scores two points!

Joe avoids a Meadow Bridge block to rack up two!

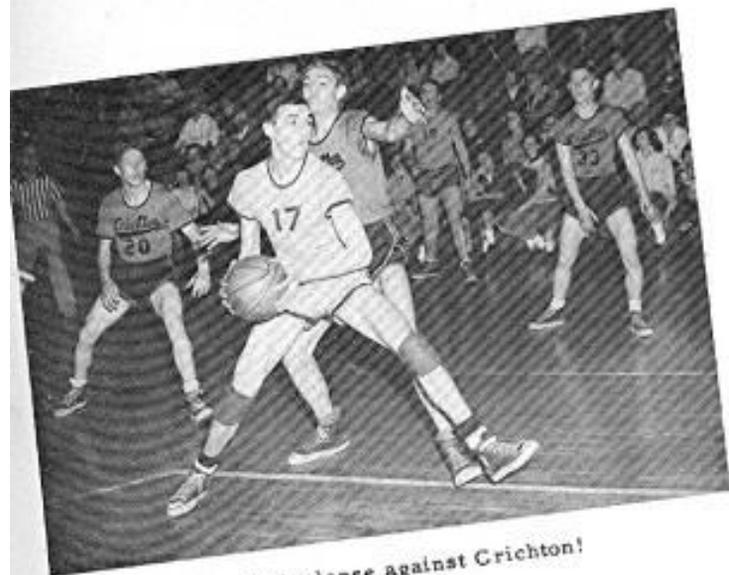

Elbert on the prowl!

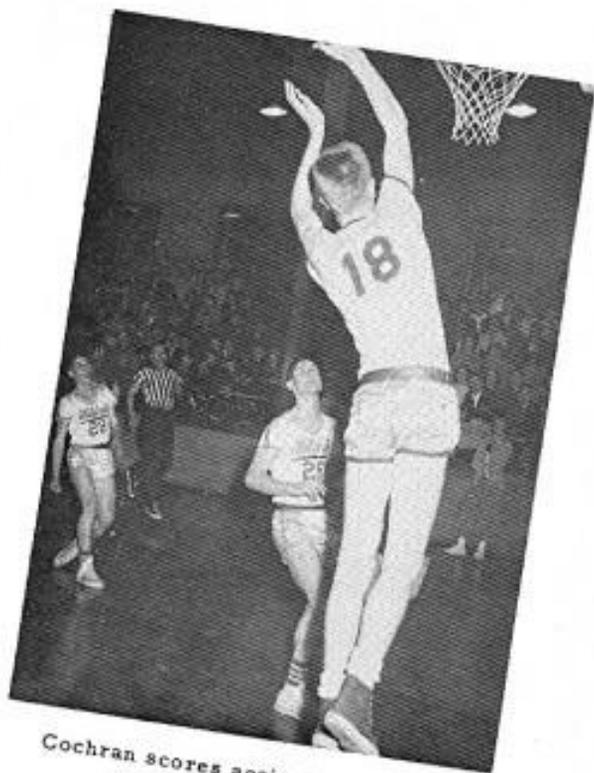

Sure two for us by Lawrence!

Our Varsity's On The Ball

Joe on the loose against Crichton!

Cochran scores against the Wildcats!

Girls Practical

"Watch the birdie" is the rule in this game of aerial darts.

Basketball gives the girls a chance to play against keen competition.

A game of horseshoes on the field provides plenty of recreation on sunny days.

*Enjoy
Sports*

Badminton is a favorite indoor sport of the gym classes.

Beginning and ending their gym period with a rush to the locker room, the sophomore and junior girls took part in various gym activities during the course of the year. Under the direction of their gym teacher, Miss Virginia West, these girls participated in sports with a great deal of enthusiasm. In the fall, the girls enjoyed the out-of-door sports, such as softball and horseshoes.

Basketball in the gym provided plenty of excitement on rainy days.

Exercises are essential to limber up stiff muscles before beginning gym activities.

First Row: Richard Neal, Jimmy Bennett, Dick Haynes, Jimmy Sanford, Mickie Eggleston, Aulden Tyler.

The Little Rangers

First Row: Corby Patton, Melvin Taylor, Howard Hylton, Cecil Paul Adkins, Ray Gene Carr, Billy Canfield, Jimmy Coffman, Richard Wilt, Paul Adkins.
 Second Row: Keith Boley, J. L. Holsberry, Jr., Kenneth Brackman, Maynard Dixon, Wetzel Walker, Kenneth Moody, Charles Miller, Bennie Kenny, Richard Hill.
 Third Row: Richard Neal, Mickie Eggleston, Aulden Tyler, James Bennett, Dick Haynes, James Yearego, Claude Keim, Joe Feruandy, Eugene Bennett.
 Fourth Row: A. J. Maynard, Coach; Billy Williams, Mgr.

ADVERTISEMENTS

The Production Of The Ranger

requires more than the time and talents of students----to Mr. Coffman and our teachers who cooperated so splendidly when schedules had to be disrupted in order to get our pictures made----to Mr. Tom Ocheltree, who worked so many hours on the photographs used throughout the book----to the students of R.H.S. who gave us our story and for whom this book is planned ---and to the many individuals who have helped create this book, the staff extends its thanks.
